wrapping it ALL UP!

Congratulations! You have just completed a very important series of activities! We hope you are more aware of what you're good at, what you like, and what's important to you. You probably know a lot more about the exciting world of careers and feel more comfortable with the idea of setting goals, making decisions and planning your own career. You are on your journey to a successful future!

Think about all of the career activities you've completed in the past few years. Write a paragraph on what you've learned about yourself, careers, and career planning, including the Career Cluster and Career Pathway that seem best suited to you right now.

Remember, no matter which Career Cluster and Career Pathway you choose to follow, your potential is awesome!
